NOVEMBER/DECEMBER NEWSLETTER

I can see for Miles and miles and m.i.l.e.s..... Oh yeah.....
Sorry, I was miles away. Seriously, it's great/fantastic/the end/super/groovy and all sorts of other things I could rave on about. It really is the best single the boys have made. It's written by Pete, of course, words you'll find later on. This looks like being their first top-ten record in the States, and I'm sure everyone's pleased about that.

HON. MEMBERS

Cream have a new album out this month. Fantastic cover. Creation have a new single out on Polygram, called "Life is Just Beginning". Alan Price has a men's boutique in Newcastle called "Fig Leaf". President Rasko continues to be beautiful on Radio One. (Don't forget to write to him for your requests for 'Miles' the address is: Box 1AA, BBC, Broadcasting House, London, W. 1.)

WORLD-WIDE WHO

In the middle of this month the boys leap off to USA again for a three week tour. They'll be playing in all the big stadiums, so watch out Stateside fans! They'll be doing coast to coast television over there, so if they don't do a show near you, you'll be able to see them on the old box.

We get them back for about a month, then off they go to Australia and New Zealand for about a fortnight. There's also a possibility of them stopping off in Japan either on their way out or back from Australia.

As I write this, they're just starting their tour with the Tremeloes, Traffic, Herd and lots of other groups. Hope most of you make it to one of the dates.

THE WHO SELL OUT

This is it! The long-awaited new album. There's never been a record in history to compare with this. It should be in your shops by Christmas, so you can all demand copies for Christmas presents, or just demand copies. The sleeve is so beautiful, I couldn't believe it was true, but you'll all be seeing it in your shops very soon, so I won't go on too much about it. I expect quite a lot of you have heard some of the numbers, either live or on Top Gear. I think my favourite is Tattoo, but all the numbers are great. But every Who album has been fantastic, so you know what to expect.

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

The van which was bought just before the boys went to Germany, and died a sad death there, is back on the road! Bob the Roadie is dead pleased to have his own van back again after six months of hired vans. It's got a new engine, black windows, the lot! Like a limousine, Bob says. Rhubarb to whoever put sand in the petrol tank and made the boys late for a date.

COMPETITION

Last month's comp. was won by Linda Long from London, and she gets the remnants of one of Pete's guitars. She got seven new members.

This competition is to make up a crossword. I'll put it in the next newsletter, use nine spaces each way, and whatever pattern of black spaces you like. All the clues must be something to do with The Who, of course. The prize will be something of Keith's. I don't know what yet. I'll have to raid his flat and see what I can find! I'd like to have your entries by December 18th, so that I have time to judge.

WHO'S YOUR FAVOURITE?

Anne Milne's poll on your favourite member of the Who wasn't very successful. I'm sure more of you can afford a fourpenny stamp (A threepenny one if you don't stick the envelope), but this was how you voted:

Pete...47.....Keith...45.....Roger...44.....John...35.....

Just goes to show there's not much between them. Anne says John's a bit behind, but he needn't worry, cos he's got Alison! Thanks for all your work, Anne. (If you want to do any polls in a newsletter, let me know and I'll see what I can do.)

WHO SAID THAT?

On the day after the boys got back from the States, they spent the whole afternoon in my office and I made them twenty-six cups of tea between them. Good to get some proper tea, they said, not made from tea bags. I quickly retreated and hid my box of tea bags!!!...Why does Pete buy records, come into the office and play about five seconds of them, then leave them behind?...Roger is selling his Aston and buying a Marcos...Who's got the tights from Keith's jester's outfit?...Nobody cept me seems to like Roger's new hairdo...Beautiful posters for I Can See For Miles...John keeps dreaming he's being chased by a gorilla...Keith bought a talking lion (toy) back from the States...Lots of famous faces liking the Who at the Saville...Arthur Brown broke his foot...Pete recording Arthur this week...John is looking for a Scottish Deer Hound, so if anyone knows of any puppies for sale, let me know. (Please don't send me any dogs!)...Did you see the photo of Bob the Roadie in Disc?...Bob has a new assistant to help him with the gear, called Pete...Did you see the Who Rock 'n' Roll band on Top of the Pops?...Camino Real want to be mentioned...Keith brought back a fringy suede jacket from the States, so did Bob...Keith put cough pastilles in John's cup of tea, John not to be beaten, fished them out and deposited them in Keith's packet of ciggies. What will they get up to next?... Keith let off a smoke bomb in the middle of a crowded street.....

EXTRA+++EXTRA+++EXTRA

I've just got some new postcard size photos, if you want one, send me a stamped addressed envelope, or, if you live abroad, an International Reply Coupon, and I'll send you one. They're free folks!!! The envelope must measure at least 4 1/2" by 6 1/2". You needn't send anything else, just mark the outside of your letter FREE PHOTO.
